

ENGLISH LANGUAGE ENTRANCE EXAM – WRITTEN EXAM 2023

NICKNAME

The maximum score for the entire written part is 20 points. The maximum score for the oral part is 20 points.

SCORE BOARD

A – TRICKY QUESTIONS
B – HIDDEN MISTAKES
C – TRICKY LISTENING
D – CREATIVE WRITING
TOTAL SCORE – WRITTEN EXAM

A – TRICKY QUESTIONS

This part of the test is not easy at all. For the first two questions, choose the most appropriate form of translation of the Czech sentence into English, questions 3 to 10 are purely in English. Remember that there can be one or more correct answers for each question! Circle all the correct answers for each question!

- Jak se Vám líbí v Praze?
 - How do you like Prague?
 - How are you liking in Prague?
 - How are you liking Prague?
 - How do you like in Prague?
- A teď to musím říci znovu.
 - Now I have to say that again.
 - Now I have to say it again.
 - Now I must say it again.
 - Now I am having to say it again.
- Doctor gave me a
 - receipt
 - prescription
 - recipe
 - receptionto pick up the pills in the pharmacy.
- Soon, I stopped
 - to interest myself
 - to be interesting
 - being interesting
 - being interestedin anything except of this subject.
- It
 - could
 - needn't
 - can't
 - had tohave been the main fuse because the TV is still working.
- Can't it wait until we
 - will meet
 - meet
 - could meet
 - methim tomorrow?
- "I am always
 - saying
 - telling
 - speaking
 - telling tosecrets," said Betty.
- Is that the Martina people used
 - to laugh with
 - laughing about
 - to laugh at
 - laughing to?
- She really deserves a holiday because she
 - is working
 - has worked
 - has been working
 - works hardrecently.
- The thief was very skilful – he was in and out very quickly but
 - had made
 - was making
 - has made
 - madea terrible mess.

B – HIDDEN MISTAKES

Each of the 10 sentences below may or may not contain an error. Your task is to identify the errors and always rewrite the entire sentence without making a mistake. If you think the original sentence does not contain an error, write the word OK on that line.

1. In that moment I couldn't say a word.

2. She is much more interesting than her sister.

3. The most of the films we saw were very boring.

4. He arrived much more later.

5. Most students still live with their parents.

6. Most of the students at the party were freshers.

7. Everyone enjoys films with a happy end.

8. In the room next door, several people were sitting on the ground.

9. I wonder if we will succeed to get tickets for the film.

10. I don't enjoy this sort of activities.

C – TRICKY LISTENING

Look carefully at the floor plan. You will hear the description of the apartment twice and your task will be to divide the information into three columns. In the first column you will list the information that is true, that is, what you see matches the drawing. In the second column you will write information that may or may not be true, and finally in the third column you will write information that is completely false.

true information	possible information	false information

D – CREATIVE WRITING

Look at the floor plan again and answer the questions below:

1) How do you like this apartment? Justify your opinion.

2) What do you miss in this apartment and why?

3) What would be the first thing you would change about this apartment and why?
